

We can't wait to see you at Semoran Skateway for Skate Night next Sunday (September 3rd)! This was a really fun event last year, whether we were skating or remaining on solid ground! Details are below.

Middle School and Elementary Open House events, so we hope you'll attend. We'll make sure to have a few tees on hand for purchase and help available for membership sign-ups if you haven't already joined!

The PTA is getting ready for our first General Meeting on September 19th. We're going to meet right between

ORLANDO GIFTED ACADEMY CLASSROOM CONNECTION

OGA PTA has organized a class level parent lead communication. This service is free, endorsed by the administration & you do not need to be a PTA member to benefit. Since your contact details cannot be provided by the school, please fill out this online form so we can help keep you informed and connected during the school year. Your personal details will remain private unless you wish to be added to the class directory.

A Parliament in the Park!

Our playdate was such a success, we're thinking it needs to be a monthly thing. Do you have a location suggestion for another OGA Parliament in the Park?
