

Hello FALL, and happy November to you! While we're celebrating Native American Heritage this month, we're also looking forward to Multicultural Night and our November PTSA Meeting this week on the 9th. The PTSA Meeting will start at 4:30pm, followed by a Multicultural Night kickoff performance and exhibits at 5:00pm. Check out our flyer to see what countries will be represented and our link below for the volunteer opportunities for the evening's festivities!

Next week, your student can hop to an early start on their gifting in our Wonderland Gift Shoppes Holiday Shop from November 13th-17th. Look for more info to come soon!

Parents, we knead your help to connect, coordinate, and create opportunities for our school.

What is P.I.E.?

Partners in Education is a county-wide program that unites our school with local businesses.

We're looking for help to:

- Stir up partnerships with local businesses
- Whip our campus into shape
- Cook up extraordinary opportunities for our students

Join us today! No experience needed—just a pinch of enthusiasm! Contact us and be a key ingredient in our success story!
